

Please continue to limit large corporations in their ability to dominate our airwaves. We need small regional broadcasters to guarantee diversity in both news and entertainment programming.